The Sabian Symbol for this Mercury Retrograde at 8 degrees of Aquarius

BEAUTIFULLY GOWNED WAXED FIGURES ON DISPLAY

In all the house descriptions add these questions to your journaling:

- Look for ways I am wooden. Is it time to break out of the old form? Melt the wax?
- Who in my life is born in Aquarius [roughly from January 20 to February 18]?
- How are they a mentor for this aquarium energy in my life? The good and the bad.

Journal about the energy, create a soulcollage card to explore the Aquarius within you. It's time to build a new structure, to manifest creative solutions to our personal and global problems that have at their core truth, heart and meaning for all sacred beings.

HOUSE IF NEW MOON IN AQUARIUS IS HERE YOU FACE ISSUES WITH

AQUARIUS IN THIS HOUSE

First	I am. Egoic. Self image. Body language. How I package and market myself. Beginnings. Spring. New Moons. Self-physically and psychologically speaking.	Mercury retrograding in this house may highlight issues of independence, the need to work in a solitary fashion, or the need to now branch out and share with others. How comfortable are you with being unorthodox?
Second	I value. My self esteem and self worth. My relationship to abundance- money and things. Talent and resource. Cash flow. Tools for survival. What I have to give.	Time to make money in innovative ways. Stay aware for new ideas and inspirations that may be stirring within. Old forms are melting; allow a new form to ground.
Third	I communicate. Attitudes towards day to day life. Relationship with siblings, neighbors. Attitude toward education. What I think about. Mental.	You are intuitive, you communicate from this inner knowing. How are you tied to the old forms of communication, what new is waiting to be birthed...look at the past 12 years since the last time Jupiter was in Aquarius.
Fourth	My foundation. Ancestry, home and family. Where did I come from? What kind of emotional foundation do I have? Standing on my own two feet.	Home life may be undergoing transformation/renovation, your style may be changing to reflect the new you.
Fifth	I create. Play. Dreaming and manifesting into matter. Children. Pride. Integrity. Having a passion for what I do. Gambling, amusements, luck, drama.	Creativity applied with laser like focus. Is it time to take a risk? The caution- don't over expand during the Mercury retrograde.
Sixth	I work. Issues of service and health. Personal hygiene. Order from chaos. House of ritual magic and celebration. Diet and exercise. Employees and fellow workers. House of mentorship.	You get to see where your methods are working for you and against you. Don't become fixated- allow new techniques to come through you that inspire others.
Seventh	I partner. Marriage. How I merge with another in relationship- business and personal. Cooperation and balance. Our shadow seen through another.	You may be exploring new freedom from relationships that seemingly bind you. Or have you become so aloof that your partner no longer knows who you are? What is needed?

- |          |   |   |
|----------|---|---|
| Eighth   | I surrender. House of death and rebirth. Money through joint efforts. Legacies. Insurance. Death. Elimination and regenerations. The house of emotional commitment in relationships. What do I need to release in order to move on? | Death comes in many forms, something within is finished. How are you holding on? Become aware and let go. How can I serve others through my gifts? How have I been hiding?  |
| Ninth    | I know. Higher education. Traveling. People of other cultures. Developing a broader understanding of life. Knowing your truth. Publishing and teaching.   | Your free thinking ability creates a vacuum that pulls the right people to you- to teach, to share. It may not become apparent to you until spring, but the behind the scenes energy you have been working with the last 12 years is ready to be seen and heard.  |
| Tenth    | My career. Public image. Reputation. How I respond. Standing in community. Power and strength of my goals. Legacy to mankind.   | Groups efforts take center stage, and now is the time to reflect on any new ideas and inspirations you may want to share. You bring clarity and focus to business situations, just slow down during the retrograde period for some simple planning. A retreat or vision quest may be in order.                            |
| Eleventh | My service. Group relationships. Hopes wishes and dreams. This is where I find my place in humanity with my own original thought or action.   | Community service- I serve in unique ways that inspire others. There is chaos in the organizations you serve as they adjust to the new economics. Now is the time for you to provide a steady hand and heart to help people re-vision what they want to create. Introduce concepts like The Secret and Law of Attraction. |
| Twelfth  | My spirituality. House of spirit. Inner strength or weakness. Where we meet our past. Finding peace of mind and heart. Institutions hospitals and prisons. Sleep, meditation. Dreamtime.  | Connect with the inner Muse- the God/Goddess of your understanding. Look for inspiration through the dream state. Intuitive versus logical thinking has got you stymied. Trust the process of your own heart. Take the Mercury retrograde period and allow introspection that serves you creativity.                      |
